Introduction of La Galerie Éphémère

A local non-profit based gallery in Shanghai, China from 2020. Focusing on installation art and exhibition. It appeals to residents in Songjiang District, where the museum is located, and attracts people in Shanghai and in surrounding cities such as Suzhou by offering unique interactive experiences. What makes the gallery unique is that it regularly exhibits one-day-only installations, which stimulate people's sense of freshness and, in keeping with the gallery's name, is fleeting. During its 4 years history, La Galerie Éphémère collaborated with quite a lot of outstanding installation artists and built a great reputation in the community, it also actively engaged in current controversial topics by holding monthly seminars and inviting well-known experts in various industries. All financial statements will be presented by Chinese currency (RMB) (1¥=0.14USD$, on 10th Nov 2024) based on accrual basis accounting

Mission statement

To provide exquisite, meaningful installation art, interactive devices using various types of technology that will enrich the community. To enrich the entertainment life and interests for people living in the suburbs of Shanghai.

Important variances

Admissions

La Galerie Éphémère holds regular exhibitions during general open hours. Single one-day admission costs 65 RMB per person. What makes the gallery special is that we regularly hold special one day only exhibition, featured by local or international artists, called "Éphémère Exhibition". The general admission for "Éphémère Exhibition" is 110 RMB per person. If one gets annual membership of the gallery which is 550 RMB for a year, the special exhibition only costs 55 RMB and there is no need for general admission to entry the gallery.

Gift Shop & Concessions

Gift shop in the gallery offering nice quality postcards and badges which are best as souvenirs for all visitors. Our food corner offers sandwiches and soft drinks to let visitors recharge themselves. 2025, the gallery plans to put new flavor in the food corner to generate more profits.

Rental Revenue

La Galerie Éphémère offers rental service for qualified artist to host their exhibition in a well-designed gallery space. Rental fee is 2000 RMB per time regardless the space used (only one hall in the gallery is available to rent, the price is fixed)

Government Grants

La Galerie Éphémère is receiving grants from both National Art Fund (350,000 RMB) and Shanghai Municipal Administration of Culture and Tourism (818,000 RMB in total) due to the constant commitment to the mission. Every year, the gallery receives the same amount of government grants.

Sponsorship

La Galerie Éphémère is being sponsored by Pudong Development Bank (130,000 RMB), Shanghai Jahwa (120,000 RMB), Swire Properties (90,000 RMB) and Hang Lung Properties (75,000 RMB). 2025, the gallery is aiming for more amount on each type of sponsorship compared with 2024.

Foundations

La Galerie Éphémère is receiving financial help from Shanghai Contemporary Art Foundation (150,000 RMB) and Ford Foundation (135,000 RMB). 2025, the gallery is aiming for more amount on each type of foundation support compared with 2024.

Fundraising Event

Every year, La Galerie Éphémère holds a fancy fundraising event for the whole year operation. All existed donors and potential donors are invited. Location varies every year depends on collaboration. 2025, the gallery is aiming for almost doubling the fund generated by the event.

In-kind Contribution

Construction and installation of the art pieces are generously donated by Tanhe Construction Company, worth 9000 RMB yearly. Legal services are generously donated by Yajie Legal Service Corporation, worth 5000 RMB yearly. 2025, the gallery collaborates with these two new companies to get more in-kind donation compared with 2024.

Marketing Expenses

To fulfill the plan of getting more funds, the gallery will spend more on marketing to enhance the visibility to the community.
